That smoog the greater number of people in the city the old style of buying has fallen into, as President Cleveland once remarked, "a state of Innocuous Desuctude," that is to say, it is one of the past means of buying goods, and we think so too, for since we inaugurated the Credit System of Payments, which gives a first chance to all who wish to complete the furnishing of their homes, we can see it, for our trade is increasing rapidly every day, and even now, when our business is supposed to be unusually duil, we are as busy as a hive of bees.

Now, one word in regard to our Fall stock. It is complete in every detail, and, of course, admits of the cheapest and best designs in the market. Just take a glance over some articles to be found here.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WILLIAMS GROVE, August 29 .- This was the big day at the Grangers' Inter-State Exhibition, and the grove was crowded with the largest throng of the week. The Cumberland Valley road brought 15,000 passengers in up to noon, and the afternoon trains were heavily laden. Thousands came by private conveyance and the attendance was fully up to that of any previous Thursday of the exhibition. The crowd was handled expeditiously and no accidents occurred. The list of notables who were booked for addresses were all on hand and the auditorium, which seats 3,000 people, was crowded all day. The first speaker was Mortimer Whitehead, of Washington, Worthy Lecturer of the National Grange, who spoke upon a variety of topics of interest to the farmers. Hon. H. K. Boyer, Speaker of the House of Representatives and Republican candidate for State Treasurer, gave a haif hour's talk upon the legislation in the interest of the farmers. At the afternoon meeting Governor Beaver spoke for an hour upon the cause of the present depression in farming interests and the methods of correcting it.

He was succeeded by Hon. W. A. Armstrong, Worthy Master of the New York State Grange, and by Victor E. Piollet, of Bradford, Pa. The exhibition will close to-morrow night. Adjutant General Has-tings will make the principal speech to-

They had enlarged upon what he had said and he proposed to say nothing further to them. The reporter has known Garlitz for a number of years, and as they talked over old times the con-his father, Mrs. Basil T. Garlitz, his mother, Alonzo Garlitz, a brother, Mrs.

A CHILD'S FAINTING

Was All That Saved a Farmer From Bela Ontrageously Swindled-Three-Card Monte Men Almost Secure a Big Prize. ALLENTOWN, August 29.—Abraham Bechtel, a well-to-do farmer, residing near Dillingersville, this county, had a narrow escape from being fleeced out of a large sum of money by three swindlers who attempted the old confidence game. In fact, the sudden illness of a member of Bechtel's family alone saved him from financial loss.

On the day in question a well-dressed stranger stopped at the Bechtel farmhous and made inquiry as to whether any farm properties were for sale in that section, pretending that he and some friends wanted to buy a farm. He acknowledged that they knew but little of farm properties and suggested, inasmuch as Mr. Bechtel was well posted on such matters, he would be just the man to guide them and at the same time proposed to have him accompany them on the purchasing errand next day. Next day the stranger and a companion drove up in a splendid team and persuaded Mr. Bechtel to accompany them. After driving about half a mile they met another man coming in the opposite direction. He stopped and said he also was out looking for a young girl, and that if he found her he would come in for a nice pile of money. In would come in for a nice pile of money. In due time the late arrival produced a number of playing cards and proceeded with the three-card monte game. Bechtel became interested, as the manipulator so handled the cards that the victim could not fail to pick out the right one. It was finally proposed that they play for a money stake. This was agreed to and Mr. Bechtel and his partner jointly won $10,000. A condition was, however, attached to this winning. Mr. Bechtel was required to put up a pile of money to show that he would have been able to pay if he had lost.

Not having the requisite funds with him,

Not having the requisite funds with him, he and one of the sharpers went back to Mr. he and one of the sharpers went back to Mr. Bechtel's homelto get some money. His wife and children tried to dissuade him from going back, they seeing through the swindle. Bechtel was determined, however, and filing his pockets with money, said nothing could make him alter his mind. As he was about re-entering the carriage, one of his children fell into a dead faint from excitement and fear, and, on seeing this. Mr. citement and fear, and, on seeing this, Mr. Bechtel jumped out of the vehicle and ran back to the house, whereupon the sharper drove off as fast as be could, evidently seeing that their chance for swindling had van-

PITTSTON, August 29 .- While a team of orses and a wagon load of iron were being ferried across the Susquehanna at Port Blanchard, to-day, the bottom fell out of the boat and precipitated the horses, their driver and the ferryman into the water. EVICTIONS IN NEW YORK.

Cenement House Cigar Manufacturers to be Turned Into the Street. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, August 29 .- The 92 families who have worked in the tenement house eigar manufactory of Rosenthal Bros., 351 East Seventy-third street, are likely to be dispossessed on Monday. The whole 92 families refused to make any more cigars on Monday night last because the firm refused to increase the pay by 50 cents a thousand. They say the firm had promised this increase. The firm have had warrants served upon all their tenants. So far but two of them have moved. The employes be-long to no union. They gave a picnic on August 10 in Jones Wood, which was largely attended by the Bohemians of the city. The others have paid up their rent to September 1, but will refuse to pay longer or accept tobacco from Rosenthal Bros. to be worked up into cigars. To day all the day all the employes were in their good clothes out in front of the big tenements. They can readily find quarters elsewhere, for tenement cigar factories are plenty.

Mr. Rosenthal said this afternoon: "I do not want any trouble with my employes. I have not had any trouble with them since the K. of L. fight, now three years ago. I believe that my employes misunderstood me the R. of L. fight, now three years ago. I believe that my employes misunderstood me when they thought that I had accepted their demand for an increase of 50 cents upon their present wages. I could not afford that. I said that I would pay them 25 cents, and have done so. They will not take less than 50 cents, and they have stopped work."
